
OPSYRIS 2017

Organisation for Psychological Research Into Stroke

Thursday 5th October 2017
Leeds Beckett University
Great Hall, James Graham Building, Headingley Campus

PROGRAMME

9:45-10:10 Registration and refreshments

10:10-10:15 Welcome from OPSYRIS Chair. Caroline Watkins, University of Central Lancashire

10:15-10:35 Rethinking our approach to mood disorder complicating long term physical illness. Allan House, University of Leeds

10:35-10:55 Formulation sessions: a role in stroke rehabilitation? Jo Hawker, Sheffield Health and Social Care NHS Trust

10:55-11:15 Sharing multi-disciplinary experiences of using the Salford Community Matched Care Model of Psychological Care after Stroke. Caroline Kinney, Sladjana Ivanis, Ellen Upton & Nikki Taylor, Salford Royal NHS Foundation Trust; Pam Johnson & Dawn Dwyer, Stroke Association

11:15-11:30 Refreshment break

11:30-11:50 Clinical decision-making and access to stroke rehabilitation for people with pre-stroke dementia/cognitive impairment. Verity Longley, University of Manchester

11:50-12:05 Seeing solutions after stroke: Durham Reading and EXploration (DREX) training. Stephen Dunne, Durham University

12:05-12:20 The effect of visuomotor compensatory training for individuals with visual field defects: a randomised controlled trial. Azuwan Musa, Durham University

12:20-12:40 Post-stroke visual impairment: the size of the problem. Fiona Rowe, University of Liverpool

12:40-13:20 Lunch buffet

13:20-13:45 Poster presentations

Poster A: Psychosocial risk factors for stroke: a systematic review. Kulsum Patel, University of Central Lancashire

Poster B: Interventions for motor apraxia after stroke and other adult-acquired, non-progressive brain injury. Daisy Clark, University of Manchester

Poster C: Implementation of a mood management programme on an acute inpatient stroke unit. Jessica McCarrick, North Tees and Hartlepool NHS Foundation Trust

Poster D: Peer support after stroke. Clare Thetford, University of Central Lancashire

Poster E: Prevalence of pre-stroke depression and its association with post-stroke depression: A systematic review and meta-analysis. Martin Taylor-Rowan, University of Glasgow

13:45-14:05 Development and evaluation of a group-based singing intervention for people with aphasia after a stroke. Mark Tarrant, University of Exeter

14:05-14:25 Mindful music listening, cognitive recovery and mood: Findings from the MELLO pilot feasibility randomised controlled trial. Satu Baylan, University of Glasgow

14:25-14:40 Refreshment break with OPSYRIS business meeting

14:40-15:00 The impact of cognitive impairment: exploring survivors' priorities through a new measurement tool. Emma Patchick, University of Manchester

15:00-15:20 Developing a psychoeducational intervention for TIA and minor stroke: Service user and expert perspectives. Eirini Kontou & Laura Condon, University of Nottingham

15:20-15:30 Closing remarks from OPSYRIS Chair. Caroline Watkins

15:30 Close
